JOE ROSA IS OFF THE LEAD

Judge Wilcox Cancelled His License for Drunkenness.

In the District Court yesterday, Judge Wilcox fined Hackman Joe Rosa $10 and costs and cancelled his license for being drunk while in charge of a licensed vehicle. High Sheriff Brown arrested defendant on King street. He was driving in a most reckless manner.

Rosa pleaded in extenuation of his conduct that he took a couple of drinks of brandy on an empty stomach and that it had got the best of him.

The high sheriff asked for an exemplary sentence. He said that it was not defendant's fault that somebody had not been run over. He said that the offence came within the hack regulations, and as such should be punished by cancellation of license. Attorney Chillingworth objected to the recommendation of cancellation, and argued that many hack-drivers had been arrested for needless driving and had not had their licenses revoked.

Judge Wilcox, in passing sentence, remarked that in the matter of needless and incapable drivers it was not well to postpone making an example until someone was killed.

The attorney for the defense noted an appeal.

Lillian, a fourteen-year-old native girl, charged with disobedience to parents, was reprimanded and discharged. The girl was arrested on the complaint of her mother, who said that the young lady had left her happy home for several days and had only been traced by an accident. She stated that this was not the first time that Lillian had overstayed her leave, and in fact intimated that she loved to linger anywhere but her own residence.

As talking did not seem to do any good, Lillian's mother thought that she would refer the matter to Judge Wilcox, whose reputation as an adjuster of domestic difficulties is unequalled in the Territory. To the erring girl the old judge spoke words of advice and mild reproof, and the result was that Lillian promised to go home with her mother and be good forevermore.

Kaalea was fined $15 and costs for needless driving. It appeared that defendant maddened his horse with a whip until it bolted, and finally kicked itself clear of the rig, in which were defendant and a small child. Kaalea stated that he had only hit the horse with the lines, but the evidence went to show that a whip was used.

Rev. J. Keppel, a Maui parson, whose duplicity got him into trouble, was fined $100 and costs on a charge of adultery. Attorney Kaulukou noted an appeal.

SHIRTWAIST FOR CARRIERS NO MORE

Postmen Will Soon Receive Regulation Uniform of the Service.

Pending the arrival of the new uniforms of the letter carriers, the new system of letter registration for those who make use of the free delivery, will not be put into operation. The blanks, receipts and everything necessary to cover this new feature of the postal service in Honolulu, are on hand. It is proposed to place these in the keeping of the letter carriers, and during the delivery of letters from house to house they will be prepared to register all sorts of mail, giving the proper receipts therefor, just as if the whole transaction occurred in the postoffice. The value of this additional feature to the residents will be appreciated in the case of householders who find it irksome to make a trip down town merely for the purpose of registering a letter.

The new uniforms for the carriers have been ordered from San Francisco, where they are made to the measurements sent on from here. The uniform consists of the regulation dark gray trousers, sack coat, brass buttons, and cap with straight visor. For rainy weather the men will have oil cloth coverings for their caps, and will probably wear rain capes. The uniforms will be a decided improvement on those with which the postmen here were originally clothed, and the shirt-waist wrinkle, while possibly a meritorious one in some respects, will have no hold on the carriers until next summer. The shirt waist fell short of serving the purpose of causing the carriers to have the neat appearance usually associated with the postmen on the mainland, and the ungainly campaign hats will never again be worn. The caps will bear the numbers of the carriers in metal plates, and will serve as an identifying mark to householders when having their letters registered.

TO THE PUBLIC.

Allow me to say a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I had a very severe cough and cold, and I feared I would get pneumonia, but after taking the second dose of this medicine I felt better, three bottles of it cured my cold and the pains in my chest disappeared entirely. I am most respectfully yours for health, Ralph S. Meyers, 64 Thirty-seventh street, Wheeling, W. Va. For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., wholesale agents.
